Report on the Bible Cause.

This department of our work has been steadily advancing, and still the demand for the Bible is rapidly increasing.

A few important facts, gathered from the report of a special committee of the last General Conference on the work of the American Bible Society, may properly be reiterated here, not merely to show the magnitude of that Society's operations, but to encourage and stimulate all our people to greater liberality, and all our preachers to increased efforts in sustaining the interests, and pushing forward the objects and enterprises of this, the oldest benevolent institution on our Coast, and among the grandest schemes in the world for spreading the Gospel, and advancing the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The first fact we quote is, that "two million dollars have been expended during the quadrenium in the work of printing and circulating the Word of God in this and other lands."

The second is, the Society has "met the increasing demand for Bibles and Testaments by issuing upon the average five copies per minute for every working day of ten hours during the entire four years."

The third is, "The Society has made grants of Bibles to various churches and missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and also to the Sunday School Union, and Freedmen's Aid Society. In addition to this, grants of money to the amount of nearly $28,000 have been made during the same period to the Missionary Society of our Church for missions in Norway, Sweden, Germany, Italy, India and Mexico.

An abstract of the thirty-sixth Annual Report of this Society shows an expenditure in the gratuitous work, for this year of $338.187.60.

From Rev. P. C. Hetzler, Dist. Sup. A. B. S., we learn that the reports from the fields within the bounds of our Conference indicate a measure of success beyond that of a year ago. The "volunteer plan" has been relied on wholly for the circulation of the Scriptures. Some of the ministers have taken greater interest in the work of personal visitation and Bible distribution during the year than heretofore.

Grants of Bibles have been made to several Indian reservations and to needy Sabbath schools and mission churches.

More than one thousand destitute families have been supplied, mostly in Oregon in the last six years, but still there are many within our borders, without the Word of Life. To supply these, is the work of the Bible Society, largely, through the volunteer services of the preachers of this Conference.

We, your committee, would beg leave respectfully to submit the following :

WHEREAS, The safety of our country and the perpetuity of our Government depend upon the intelligence, and morality of our people ; and

WHEREAS, The Bible is the only standard of wise and wholesome law ; therefore,—

Resolved, That it is our imperative duty to put the Bible, if possible, into the hands of every citizen and especially into all our common schools.

Resolved, That for this purpose we will continue our co-operation with the A. B. S. and its duly authorized agents—that we will, in the absence of the agents' visits to our fields of labor, present the claims of the Society to our congregations, and take collections for its treasury ; and that we will also aid the Society in its work by seeking out and supplying the destitute.

Respectfully submitted,

T. F. ROYAL,

Report of Committee on Chinese.

[Rev. William Roberts reported on the condition of the mission at Portland.—See Report "B"].

Rev. J. F. DeVore reported the following in regard to the mission at Seattle :

We have at this place a Chinese chapel comfortably seated, furnished with gas lights and everything necessary for holding meetings. There is a membership of fifteen, who hold weekly prayer and praise meetings ; also a Sabbath School which has been attended by fifty-seven Chinese the past year.

Mrs. Belle Thomas, assisted by others, has conducted a night school, free of charge, for the last three years. It is proposed to hold this school subsequently in the chapel. At our last Quarterly Conference a Committee, or Board of Directors was constituted for the purpose of employing teachers, provided sufficient missionary appropriations can be obtained. In view of the demands of our Chinese Mission at Seattle, and in view of the great number of Chinese already within and still coming within the bounds of our Conference, Resolved, 1. That we ask the Bishop and Cabinet to make donations of the present appropriation to both Portland and Seattle.

2. That we ask the Mission Board at New York to appropriate two thousand five hundred dollars for the Chinese work in this Conference, and that Bishop Wiley present our cause to the Board.

3. That we deem it of vital importance for all our ministers, wherever possible, to organize Chinese missions and Sabbath schools.

4. That we hereby invite Bishop Wiley to address the Conference on this subject.

5. That we request the continuance of Rev. Wm. Roberts as Superintendent of the Chinese missions.

6. That the Chinese should be treated kindly; and every effort within our power be put forth to convert them to God and teach them the ways of life.

L. L. ROGERS,
J. F. DEVORE,
T. VANSOY.

Report "B."

The undersigned, in addition to a very important charge in Washington county, has been expected to look after the Chinese within our bounds. What has been done, has been chiefly in Portland and Seattle. To encourage the Portland School I have furnished a school-room at an expense of ten dollars per month since October 13th, 1879. It is centrally located, in the same building with the Chinese Home, for which they pay $15 per month.

The school is held six nights in the week, from 7 to 9 o'clock, except on Sabbath, when it is held an hour and a half before time for service.

The teachers are mostly graduates from the High School in Portland, under the supervision of Bro. Thomas B. Maxwell. At the last term there were fifty scholars, with an average attendance of about thirty. When the school was started nearly three years ago, there were ten boys who assumed the financial responsibility, of whom Moy Ling was the principal. The "original ten," as they were called, has dwindled down to seven, and some of these are expected to leave. These boys have fitted up the school, paid for books, lights, fuel, $150.00 for an organ, the whole rent up to last October, and for the Home since that time—they have hunted up scholars and done a good deal of missionary work. The deportment of the scholars is excellent, treating their teachers with much kindness, and paying them, when they are able, one dollar each per month. These strangers are slow to assume financial responsibility, and some relief is needed very much to aid the school—the much needed appropriation, it is hoped, may now be used. In the absence of any one better qualified, I shall willingly look after this interest another year.

The Chinese population of Portland is set down by the census at 4,500, but in the fishing season many are away at the fisheries, others are out grubbing in the country, and hundreds are on the lines of the railroads of Eastern Oregon and Washington.

Portland is the rallying point and here we especially need a building for school purposes. The glamour thrown around this Chinese question by the politicians is a California scare-crow, conjured up by Dennis Kearny & Co. It is entitled to no respect ;—but it confuses the minds of many good people and they are timid in doing anything in this cause. It is well to know that the Chinese population of San Francisco is only 1-11th of the whole population of the city ; the death rate among the Chinese there is only 25 per 1,000, a ratio less than the mortality of the tenement house population in New York. God, in his Providence, is bringing this question of Christian duty to our doors and laying it on our hearts, as a test of Christian character. Shall we accept the trust, teach them our language, tell them of our Savior, and bring them to repentance ?

WILLIAM ROBERTS.

Report on Church Extension.

The amount raised by this Conference for the current year is $108.30.

Th's Society is doing a good and very extensive work, looking to the erection of neat, substantial and commodious houses of religious worship in every needy and destitute section of our beloved Zion, and commends itself to the judgment, sympathy and hearty co-operation of all her friends.

Your committee can but regret the smallness of the amount raised by this Conference the past year, and yet at the same time we would indulge the hope that the full amount assessed (i. e. $800) to be raised by this Conference the coming year, will be fully met.

Report of the Educational Committee of the Oregon Conference, 1880.

No work in which this Conference is engaged has nobler aims or more imperative demands than the educational work in our various schools and colleges. Our civilization demands not only culture but Christian culture, while our Christianity demands true mental development. We can only solve the political, the social, the moral and the religious questions of our age by raising up a generation of young men and women whose enlightened mind shall be guided by an enlightened conscience and a sanctified love of truth.

For the accomplishment of this end we began early, have toiled hard and purpose to toil on while the cause of our Master's Kingdom is entrusted to our keeping.

Under the patronage of our Conference we have one University, one College and three active Academies.

Willamette University located at Salem, consists of a College of Liberal Arts, a Medical department, a Woman's college, a Business college and an Academy, with three other academies as correlated schools, also a Musical department.

The College of Liberal Arts has been embarrassed for want of funds, and hence its faculty is reduced too small for the best efficiency.

At the beginning of the year the institution was very fortunate in securing the services as acting President of Rev. Chas. E. Lambert, A. M., B. D., of Indiana, who afterward was elected president. Prof. Lambert is a very competent and thorough man and we compliment ourselves on the acquisition of such a valuable man. In addition to his duties as president he is also a Professor in the College of Liberal Arts.

The Medical department is located at Portland and is as prosperous as usual. Its graduates rank by the side of those of any other institution on the Coast.

The Woman's college is in connection with the college of Liberal Arts at Salem, and will meet a felt want in the educational demands of our State.

The Academy has been thoroughly reorganized, and is now without question the best organized academy in our State. Rev. Thos. VanScoy, A. M., B. D., a very competent and energetic teacher is principal.

The Business department is new and proposes to be second to none in the State. Competent instructors have been secured.

Your committee beg leave to say that we have received no statement of attendance or of work done—neither any statement of financial condition or outlook.

The following are recommended for trustees as the Class of 1880. (See list).

ASHLAND COLLEGE AND NORMAL SCHOOL.

This Institution is of college grade, but its immediate work will be chiefly preparatory. A year ago it was placed under the supervision of the M. E. Church, and its trustees were elected by the Oregon Conference.

The trustees thus elected placed the school in the hands of Rev. Lowell L. Rogers, A. M., as President for a term of five years, giving him the right to nominate his own assistants.

By the terms of the contract entered into by Prof. Rogers and the trustees, he was to take the school, pay all expenses and make what he could out of it. Fees for tuition are the only source of revenue to the school.

Changes have been made in the corps of instructors as follows: Prof. and Mrs. Nichols have resigned their respective positions, and Rev. Ladru Royal, A. M., a man of fine literary qualifications and eminent success in teaching, has been elected Professor of Latin and Greek Languages and Literature, and Miss Ella M. Scott, a lady of acknowledged ability in her department, Teacher of Music. They have both signified their acceptance of the positions to which they have been elected.

During the last year one hundred and forty different scholars have been in attendance. Of these, fifty-two have entered to complete one of the prescribed courses of which there are five, viz.: Classical, Scientific, Normal, Commercial and Musical.

The patronizing territory of this Institution is properly all of Southern Oregon and Northern California, a region vast in extent and capable of supporting permanently many large and populous communities.

It is very fortunate that our Church has in Ashland College an opportunity to furnish Christian instruction and training to the youth of this delightful region.

Tuition is $40.00 a year; one pupil for three years or three pupils from one family one year, $100.00. Total expense, including tuition, board and music, $250.00 a year. The religious interest during the last year has been good. Students' prayer meetings are held at 3 P. M. on Sunday.

While the modern demand for practical business education is met, the solid classical studies are honored and encouraged.

A class of five will begin the studies of the junior year September first.

With the present able and efficient faculty we have great confidence that this young institution has before it a bright and honorable career, and with much hard work on the part of the instructors, and a cheerful co-operation on the part of the people, will be a great blessing to both Church and State.

We would recommend that the following named gentlemen be elected trustees. (See list).

SANTIAM ACADEMY.

The following excellent report has been furnished by the Chairman of the Visiting Committee. (See report).

The real status of this school is this: The property is held by the school in fee simple, but the charter provides that the trustees shall be constituted by the Oregon Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The school belongs really and truly to our Church.

We recommend the pastors of Shedd's, of Brownsville and of Jefferson circuits as visiting committee.

Persons to be elected to fill the board of trustees for the Santiam Academy. (See list).

PORTLAND ACADEMY.

We have received the following report from this institution which we approve. (See report).

WILBUR ACADEMY.

This institution has been very fortunate in securing the services of Prof. H. L. Benson, A. M., of California, as its principal. The past year has not been so prosperous as could be wished, but the prospect is now much better.

We recommend the appointment of the pastors of Wilbur, Roseburg and Drain circuits as a visiting committee.

It is recommended that the Class of 1877 be re-nominated as Trustees.

SHERIDAN ACADEMY.

This school is located in a pleasant and healthful spot in Yamhill county, and is also fortunate in having secured the services of that well known educator—Rev. J. H. Skidmore, A. M., as its principal.

Prof. Pettinger has conducted a district school in the building the past year.

We ask the appointment of the pastors of Sheridan, Dallas and McMinnville circuits for the coming year as visiting committee.

No nominations of trustees having reached us, we recommend the re-election of the class of 1877.

Resolved, That we cordially invite Presidents Lambert and Rogers to our pulpits and our homes in the interests of the institutions under their respective management.

Resolved, That we highly appreciate and heartily commend the labors of Rev. L. J. Powell, Superintendent of Public Instruction, in behalf of our common schools, and that we request the Bishop to reappoint him to that position.

REPORT FROM PORTLAND ACADEMY AND FEMALE SEMINARY, 1880.

To the Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Oregon:—
The Board of Trustees of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary would respectfully report :

1st. That at the annual meeting of said Board, held on the 16th inst., the following named persons were nominated as the first class of Trustees to hold office for three years, viz. :—Wm. H. Watkins, E. J. Northrup, William Roberts, Abraham Waltz, Isaac Dillon, Henry Miller, and M. F. Mulkey.

2nd. That the said Board extend, for one year, the proposition made last year to the Willamette University in relation to turning over to said University the said Academy property, the particulars of which will be found on pages 36 and 37 of the Journal of the Oregon Annual Conference for 1879.

3rd. The following named persons were elected officers for the ensuing year: William H. Watkins, President; E. J. Northrup, Vice President; George H. Chance, Treasurer; Addison C. Gibbs, Secretary.

4th. In other respects the Academy is substantially in the same condition as last year, excepting that lot five of the Academy Block has been sold for $3,000 to pay off an old debt of $1520.25, and the balance to be applied as contemplated, in the proposition made to the Willamette University heretofore referred to.

Six hundred dollars of said purchase money has been paid, and balance is due on the first day of December next, secured by a mortgage on said lot. This lot is of less value than any other in the block.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

ADDISON C. GIBBS,

Secretary.

There has been no receipts of money from any other source. No cases of expulsion or punishment have occurred.

The buildings of the Academy are in about the same condition as at the close of last year, and need some repairs and repainting. The library numbers about 250 volumes. The apparatus needs repairing. The school has prospered as well, and even better, than could have been expected taking all the circumstances into consideration—such as the failure of crops last year and the consequent depression in monetary matters. This, with the unsettled financial condition of the school, has made a greater degree of success very difficult, if not impossible. The school has been under the supervision of Prof. J. S. Gilbert, assisted by Helen R. Gilbert and Mary E. Gilbert.

The importance of this school, considering the present outlook and the future commercial importance of the location with the prospect of railroad connections with Albany and Portland, and other important points, is second to none of its grade.

Respectfully submitted,

H. C. JENKINS.

VII.

Report on the Freedmen.

Your committee respectfully report as follows :

The cause of the Freedmen should no longer be considered among those of minor importance, or one to be treated with little consideration. As represented through the "Freedmen's Aid Society" of our Church it stands next in importance, if, indeed, not equal, in its claim to the Missionary Cause or that of Church Extension. It is both these causes combined. Without homes, without friends, money, schools, teachers, or churches, oppressed for their very loyalty to our Church and the Government, the colored people of the South stand in poverty and nakedness at our door asking for that help without which they must still remain in ignorance, rags and ruin. While they plead for our protection, Romanism pleads for their patronage. While the M. E. Church more than any other church in the land is responsible for their present condition, in the necessary transition from slavery to freedom, the Papacy proposes to help them out, by providing free schools and churches. We dare not let this contract. If we fail to heed their cry for present help, by withholding the substantial material and moral contributions required now, we may yet hear their cry in the ranks of our enemies, when in the future they come back to claim blood for blood.

We regret the decrease of Conference collections, as shown in the report this year, and therefore

Resolved, That we urge greater attention to this subject the coming year, and recommend our pastors to preach upon it at least once in each Society.

Report of the Committee on Indian Affairs.

TO THE OREGON ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Your Committee on Indian Affairs would beg leave to report :

We believe the present policy of our Government towards the Indians, known as the "Peace Policy," to be wise and humane, and it has our most emphatic approval. The Government, in carrying out this policy, has placed five reservations within the bounds of this Conference under the supervision of the Methodist Episcopal Church. What does the Government expect of us? What is our duty in this matter? These are questions to which we should give some attention. We are evidently expected to nominate persons for the office of agent who are good business men and strictly honest ; and in addition to these qualifications, if we would accomplish all that may reasonably be expected of us as a Church, we should nominate none but those who are strictly pious and who will heartily co-operate with our Church in all its efforts to civilize and Christianize this unfortunate people. Every reservation placed under our supervision ought to be organized into a Methodist mission ; and, that the mission may be successfully carried on, the agent and all of the employees should be consistent members of, and in hearty sympathy with, the Methodist Episcopal Church. Then there should be a minister on every reservation to preach the Gospel, visit the sick and pray with them in their lonely cabins, and to bury the dead. A Methodist mission can only be carried on successfully by members of the Methodist church who are in sympathy with its work.

Of the five agencies placed under the supervision of this Conference, but two of the agents are members of the Methodist church, viz : the agents at Siletz and at Klamath. Siletz is, probably, the most promising field. Our Conference has taken a deep interest in the Indians on this reservation, and kept a missionary there ever since the reservation passed under the supervision of our Church. He, in connection with the agents and employees, has usually labored faithfully to civilize and Christianize these Indians, and the Lord has owned and blessed their labors. These Indians were formerly the most cruel and bloodthirsty on the Pacific Coast. At the close of the Indian war of 1855-56, five thousand of them were placed upon this reservation. As they were brought in contact with the worst class of whites, their numbers rapidly diminished, until at the time of the inauguration of the present policy, but one thousand five hundred all told, remained. Now our Church has a membership of one hundred and thirty, including probationers, and a large per cent. of them are deeply pious, exhibiting all the fruits of the Spirit. So rapid has been their advancement in all that pertains to civilization that they are scarcely like the same people. Their sanitary condition has also so improved that the number of births annually, according to the report of the resident physician, has been slightly in excess of the number of deaths, for the past two or three years.

The present agent took charge July 14, 1879 ; and some of his employees are not in sympathy with the doctrines and usages of our Church, and so express themselves to the Indians. In consequence of this, and for other reasons which it is not necessary here to mention, but little advancement has been made by the Church this year, though most of the employees have labored faithfully. That our Church may be as successful in this field in the future as it has been in the past, we would nominate for agent at Siletz reservation Hon. Francis M. Wodsworth, a gentleman known by many members of this body to be well qualified in every respect for the office.

Your committee has no report from Neah Bay or Quinault. As the agents in charge of these reservations are not members of the Methodist Church and were not recommended by the Missionary Board, we would nominate Miller G. Royal for agent at Neah Bay, and John W. Miller for agent at Quinault.

KLAMATH AGENCY.

The Indians of this reservation are making commendable progress in civilization. They very readily accept the facts connected with the Christian religion. Several of them have a clear Christian experience. Nearly the whole tribe are slowly and yet surely growing toward a better social and moral condition. They are emphatically an industrious and temperate people.

One omen for good is the diminished influence of the "medicine men." More than one-half of these have recently, by the actions of the chiefs, been forbidden to practice. This will lead to good results. The "Boarding School" is prospering as never before. The outlook for the future was never as good as now. Religious services, consisting of one sermon, an interesting Sunday school and a prayer meeting, are held each Sunday. There is no tribe on this Coast that bid fair to civilize and Christianize more readily and easily than these Indians.

Your committee would offer the following resolutions :

Resolved, 1. That we recommend extending the laws of the states and territories in which the reservations may be located, over the reservations, so as to make the Indians amenable to the laws for the crimes of murder, theft and adultery.

2. That we recommend the Government to give every Indian who may desire it, a title to a tract of land of 160 acres more or less, and to make the title inalienable for a period of twenty years.

3. That our Presiding Elders are requested to visit the agencies in their respective fields, and remain sufficiently long to become acquainted with the conditions of the agency, and make a report of the same to this body.

4. That we ask the Missionary Society for an appropriation of five hundred dollars for the Indian work.

Report on Pacific Christian Advocate.

The Pacific Christian Advocate begun as a private enterprise, and subsequently was transferred to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. It has thus far remained the only publishing interest of the Oregon Conference during the last quarter century. It has been aided in its publication by valuable donations of money and material from time to time, as was deemed necessary, until the session of the General Conference in May last. At that time that body donated and directed the agents of the Book Concern to transfer to the publishing committee appointed by the Oregon and the Columbia River Conferences, all its material interests in the paper, consisting of building, type and all fixtures requisite for its publication. In addition to this, the General Conference gave us a subsidy of $2,500, which was deemed sufficient to cover all arrearages, up to the end of the current calendar year.

The exhibit of the paper, as obtained from the office of publication, July 31st, 1880, is as follows :

The Columbia River Conference, at its last session, took action on the matter of publishing the Advocate, and the Oregon Conference is recommended to concur with them in the following particulars :

"1st. That we recommend the creation of a joint commission of nine, which shall have full power to determine whether it is practicable to publish the paper at all or not, and if so, to mature and inaugurate some plan—employ a business manager and editor, and take or provide for the safe management of the whole matter. Said commission to consist of two ministers and two laymen from the Columbia River Conference, and three ministers and two laymen from the Oregon Conference."

Respecting this first measure, your committee would recommend the hearty and unanimous concurrence of the Conference ; "Provided, that discretionary power be given the commission hereafter to be appointed, to employ one or two men to conduct the paper."

"2nd. That inasmuch as the paper must be published at Portland, and hence managed largely by men within the bounds of the Oregon Annual Conference, that we deem it a matter of courtesy that this Conference be granted the privilege of nominating its editor, and that we respectfully ask the Oregon Annual Conference, if possible, to second our nomination ; and we therefore recommend for your approval, the Rev. Harvey K. Hines, a man not only well qualified to fill the editorial chair, but one whose long residence among us and intimate connection with the growth of Methodism on this Coast has made his name a household word in both Conferences, and point to him as the man for the place."

In regard to the appointment of an editor for the Pacific Christian Advocate, your committee do not find it necessary to indicate any preference for any one that might be considered a candidate for the position. Rev. H. K. Hines is extensively acquainted with the growth of Methodism within the bounds of both Conferences, no one is more so, and he possesses many qualities which are indispensable to an editor, and which commend him to such a position ; but your committee believe that a report of this character is not the place to express any preference, or to use any influence in the matter. The proper time to decide this question will have come when the ballots are about to be deposited by those who are authorized to deposit them.

"3rd. That we will earnestly and cordially labor for the success of the paper—co-operating fully with the recommendation and action of the Commission, and that in case Brother Hines is chosen as its Editor, we believe that we can secure a paying list of five hundred subscribers within the bounds of the Columbia River Conference.

"4th. That we elect two of our number, who with three members of the Oregon Conference shall, in case the Commission so determine, constitute a Publishing Committee.

"5th. That as a Conference we will not ask or receive any premium or bonus for subscriptions, but will account to the Advocate office the full subscription price for every Advocate taken, provided, the Oregon Annual Conference will do the same."

Your committee recommend the hearty indorsement of this last item by the latter Conference, and respectfully submit for earnest and careful consideration and action the foregoing propositions.

It must be borne in mind that your committee could do no more than simply to report as statistics, the aggregate of reports furnished by the pastors. But from several charges no reports whatever have been furnished, while many of the reports handed in lack some important items.

Your committee are convinced that simple faithfulness to duty on the part of each pastor would have furnished true reports, showing an increase in nearly every item.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee.

Report on the Sabbath.

The public sentiment in regard to the sanctity of the Sabbath is not so well assured as we could wish. The encroachments of secular business, especially in seed-time and harvest ; the tendency of many of our citizens to make it a day of amusement and recreation, and the teachings of some seventh-day advocates serve to undermine public confidence in the Sabbath, so that a constant and full restatement of the great law of the Sabbath becomes necessary. It will be a great help to us to remember that God has written the necessity for the Sabbath upon the physical nature of both man and beast. A commission appointed years ago in England decided that for well known physical reasons, both man and beast should rest one day in seven; but the great remedy for the danger lies in a careful study of God's Word as to the nature and benevolent design of the Sabbath. The Sabbath is as old as creation; it is as binding as "Thus saith the Lord;" the cherished memories of childhood and age connect it with the happiest hours of earth, and he who would undermine our confidence in the Sabbath is a fraud both in moral science and Christian piety. We recommend the circulation in all our charges of Dr. Benson's work on "The Lord's Day," as an effectual antidote to the poisonous sentiments above alluded to. It is sent by mail at $1.50 per dozen, from the Book Depository in San Francisco.

Respectfully,

WM. ROBERTS,

D. L. SPAULDING,

XII.

Report on Temperance.

Your committee would report that a glorious temperance work has been going forward for two years past within the bounds of this Conference, known as the Gospel Temperance Movement. Different temperance organizations labor harmoniously in this great moral reform. The number identified in this work may be safely estimated at eighteen thousand. In proof of their influence we would observe that the Legislature of W. T., at their last session passed a civil damage and a confirmed inebriate law; and it is hoped by the friends of temperance that similar laws will be passed by the next Legislature of this State. In the interest of the cause of Christ and humanity we hail with delight this temperance movement in our midst and pray God it may go on to final victory.

1st, Resolved. That we heartily endorse all honorable means to promote the cause of temperance, and we earnestly commend it to our people.

2nd. That we most earnestly and respectfully request the Oregon Legislature at its next session to enact stringent civil damage, confirmed inebriate and local option laws.

Respectfully submitted,

N. A. STARR,

Chairman.

Report on Tract Cause.

The great good resulting from the distribution of tracts among our people and in our work, should stimulate each one of us to increased effort in this work.

We are too much inclined to pass over the collection for the Tract cause as of small import. Collections were taken on only twenty-three of our forty-six charges, amounting to $25.75, a falling off from last year of $3.75.

Portland District.....	$14.20
Puget Sound District.....	6.05
Eugene District.....	5.50

A few more years of falling off in our collections such as are indicated in the reports on this subject for the last few years past, will close out this division of our work entirely. We hope that no pastor will come to Conference again without a collection for this worthy cause.

W. BUTT,
Chairman.

Report of the Commission on the Re-organization of the Trustees of Willamette University.

The Commission appointed by this Conference one year ago on the re-organization of the Board of Trustees of Willamette University, has carefully considered the subject submitted to it. We have taken pains to inform ourselves with a good degree of thoroughness relative to the whole question of the trusteeship of several of our most important and prosperous institutions of learning. Permit us to call your attention to some of the results of our investigations.

Boston University has thirty trustees, twenty-five of whom are elected by the Board of Trustees, and five by the Alumni, in classes of six each, for a term of five years.

The Indiana Asbury University has twenty-nine trustees and visitors elected by four patronizing Conferences, the term of the trustees being three years.

Dickinson College has forty trustees; they are nominated by several patronizing Conferences and elected by the Board.

The North Western University has thirty-six trustees, twelve of whom are elected by six patronizing Conferences, two by each Conference, for a term of two years, and twenty-four by the Board, in classes of six each, for a term of four years.

Syracuse University has forty-one trustees; nine are elected by the Board for a term of six years, twenty-four by seven patronizing Conferences, for a term of three years, and three by the Alumni for a term of three years, and the Governor of the State, the Lieutenant Governor, the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and the President of the University, are Trustees ex-officio.

Wesleyan University has fifty-five trustees—term of office five years; thirteen are elected by thirteen patronizing Conferences, one by each Conference; ten by the Alumni, and the balance by the Board. The President of the University is a Trustee ex-officio.

Corresponding facts relative to other of our institutions of learning might be given, but they would be little more than a repetition of those given above.

It will be observed that each of these institutions vests the authority for electing trustees in two or more different bodies. In only one instance are annual Conferences entirely excluded from sharing in such election, that of Boston University, and in this case the charter provides that two-thirds of the trustees must be members of the M. E. Church. In only one instance of those cited, the Indiana Asbury, is the right of election vested solely in annual Conferences. Two, Dickinson and the North Western, divide the authority between several Conferences and the Board of Trustees. The remaining two in our list, Syracuse and Wesleyan, distribute the authority to several Conferences, but these share it also with the Alumni and the Board of Trustees; and this seems to us the wisest plan. It is best adapted to secure the sympathies of the largest possible circle of patrons. It sufficiently guards the question of the Christian character and Methodist proclivities of the trustees. It is sufficiently likely to secure men of large business wisdom, and also to secure a fair proportion of men of culture. One of the professors in Wesleyan University writes us as follows concerning the working of this plan: "The present arrangement seems to me very satisfactory. Scholarship is supposed to be represented by the Alumni trustees and the Conference trustees; religion by the Conference trustees; the spirit of freedom and progress by the Alumni trustees; financial solidity by the trustees elected by the Board. The Board as a whole seems to me sufficiently permanent for conservatism, sufficiently changeable for progress.

In our judgment the best interests of Willamette University would be promoted by the adoption of a similar plan, modified in minor particulars to best suit it to our different circumstances.

We, therefore, recommend the following amendment to the charter of the Willamette University:

In the year 1881, and each year thereafter, five trustees shall be elected by the Oregon Conference, one by the Columbia River Conference, three by the Board of Trustees, and one by the Alumni. They shall hold their office four years, and until their successors are elected. A change in the name of a Conference shall not invalidate its authority to elect trustees. And whenever a new Conference shall be formed in whole or in part out of the territory now occupied by the Oregon or Columbia River Conference, then such Conference shall have authority to elect one trustee annually to hold office for the term of four years, and until his successor shall be elected; provided, that the Board of Trustees shall first request such Conference to make such election. The President of the University shall be a trustee ex-officio.

One year ago the Trustees of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary proposed to donate to the Willamette University the property in their possession, or the proceeds of its sale, on certain conditions, that with moral certainty will be met, the same to constitute, with certain other funds, an irreducible endowment fund. But one of the conditions imposed is that this endowment fund shall be placed in the hands of three special trustees, to be appointed by the Bishop of the Oregon Conference. Since the creating of such trustees becomes a necessity, it seems to us wise to give them recognition in our charter, and so give them the legal status of a corporation, charged with the sole function of holding in trust for the trustees of Willamette University all irreducible funds and other property designed for the permanent endowment of the University, and of paying over to the Trustees of Willamette University semi-annually the income from such property.

We therefore recommend that the University charter be so amended as to provide for three Endowment Trustees, to be appointed annually by the Bishop of the Oregon Conference, for a term of three years and until their successors shall be appointed, the first three to be appointed at this session of the Conference, and their names to go into the charter, and at their first meeting the term of each to be determined by lot, so that one vacancy shall occur annually and be annually filled.

There is another important matter we venture to treat upon, although its consideration was not specifically committed to us. Several years ago this Conference took action relative to correlating the several Conference Academies with the Willamette University. During the last year the Trustees of the University have taken some steps in the same direction. To facilitate this work and give legal effect to it we further recommend the following amendment to the Charter of the University :

Any chartered institution of learning may become a department of this University by agreement between the Boards of Trustees of the two institutions.

We also recommend that a committee of three be appointed by the chair to carry out the above recommendations.

THE Willamette University,
SALEM, OREGON.

This Institution enters upon the School Year of 1880-81 with better prospects than ever before. During the past year changes in its internal policy have been inaugurated, as follows:

1. The organization of a first grade Academy, with three full years of preparatory studies, and four courses of instruction, comprising (a) Business Course, (b) High School Course, (c) Preparatory Literary, (d) Preparatory Classical; the direction and government of which is under a special principal.

2. The exclusion of the old so called Scientific Course of four years, and the introduction of the Literary Course of seven years, of equal honor and educational value with the Classical.

3. The introduction of a rigid system of classification; of semi-term examinations in writing; printed reports to parents and guardians of each student's deportment and scholarship, twice each term; the elevation and better classification of the course of study.

4. The exclusion of extra charges for French, German and Writing, the last of which will be thoroughly taught—both plain and ornamental—in the Academy, the ensuing year, by a special instructor.

5. The Woman's College of the University deserves special mention. No new feature of the institution, already introduced or contemplated, is of greater importance than this. This Department is specially designed to supply a line of social oversight, art and culture, to women of the University, under special instructors. A College Home, tastefully furnished, and under careful supervision, is now in readiness for occupancy, for young ladies from a distance.
